

Dear Fleur,

There is so much to tell you this month... you really must get your diary out to mark in these dates:
Thursday 1 – Sunday 4 May, 2008 for the Interactive Arts Exhibition plus a special highlighter for the Recital by Eu4ria string quartet on Friday 2 May.

This art exhibition will showcase and sell original works and prints by WA artists during this 4 day event at Subiaco Arts Centre. There are some fabulous works of art to view or purchase, a recital by dynamic string quartet Eu4ria, an exclusive opening night party and opportunities to meet the artists, musicians and designers.

In addition, take a moment to browse our monthly specials, including something glamorous for your Mum by our jewellery designer, Bianca Manno.

Congratulations to our winners for our 2 March competitions, we have notified them and are arranging to deliver their prizes, but we'd like to thank and welcome all our new members and subscribers. We look forward to you shopping online with us often.

Please welcome to the Interactive Arts Creative Community: opera singer, Penny Shaw and soloist Sacha McCulloch. We have Penny's latest CD available, Cugine: Songs to Love, a selection of beautiful love songs with another opera star, Tamsyn Stock-Stafford at the very reasonable price of $20 each. This is a perfect gift for Mother's Day and we will include complimentary wrapping until Sunday 11 May, 2008 (yep that's the big day!). Sacha McCulloch is familiar to Interactive Arts patrons as the fabulous cellist from Eu4ria String Quartet and is now seeking solo opportunities to perform. We will have her interview from The West's Ed Mag available on our links page very soon. So why not book Penny, Sacha or any of our fabulous musicians for your special occasion?

Finally, I would like to ask for your assistance by participating in our online survey to give us your valuable feedback about our website and online store. Please click on this link to complete. We appreciate your time and look forward to your comments.

That's all the News & Specials for April. I do hope to see you during one of our events in May...

Warm regards,

Fleur

PS The Eu4ria String Quartet Recital ticket price includes an exclusive cocktail function with quality food and wine prior to the event. Take advantage of a 10% discount for early bird bookings before Friday 18 April, 2008.
