

Media Release - 8 November 2007

Interactive Arts Exhibition & Eu4ria String Quartet

Eastern Hills Music Centre, Keane St East, MOUNT HELENA

3pm Sunday 25 November 2007

Take a Sunday drive into the Perth hills for Mundaring Performing Arts Society's presentation of the dynamic String Quartet, Eu4ria, coupled with an Interactive Arts Exhibition. Complete this memorable afternoon of fine music and art enjoying wine and refreshments while meeting the Artists at a function following the performance until 6pm.

Interactive Arts Exhibition_artists: Lorna Murray, Textile Artist, resides in Doubleview, Russell Toyn, Photographer, resides in Shenton Park, Daemon Clark, Photographer, resides in South Perth

Lorna Murray is a practicing textile artist from Perth and has received national recognition for her costume work and has worked in theatre, television, and fashion. Russell Toyn is a global traveller settled in Perth with the ability to capture his local surroundings with a fresh appreciation. Daemon Clark is a musician and photographer from Perth, finding inspiration from the Impressionist Art movement in his work. Interactive Arts is an online business providing a diverse range of arts experiences, products and giftware for sale. We promote artists and their work with the aim to broaden Arts audiences and to develop new audiences. New website to be launched soon.

Eu4ria string quartet members: Tashana Olsen, violin resides in Brentwood, Daemon Clark, violin resides in South Perth, Jody Pettit, viola resides in East Victoria Park and Sacha McCulloch, cello resides in Mount Hawthorn

Eu4ria is a new professional string quartet based in Perth that offers chamber music experiences that reinvigorate the original intimacy of the genre: performances for friends and music lovers in close quarters.

Interactive Arts Exhibition

The Interactive Arts Exhibition will be held in the foyer of the Eastern Hills Music Centre for patrons to browse or purchase artworks before the performance and during interval. This exhibition is free to all patrons attending the Eu4ria performance.

Eu4ria performance

$15 book online at www.interactivearts.com.au or phone Fleur on 9380 6539 or 0412 473 248
Join this dynamic new addition to the Perth chamber music scene and hear Haydn's Sunrise Quartet, Dvorak's American Quartet and Shostakovich's 8th Quartet.

Meet the Artists function

$15 book online at www.interactivearts.com.au or phone Fleur on 9380 6539 or 0412 473 248
Function will be held immediately after the concert until 6pm (bookings are essential)
Function price includes the opportunity to meet the artists and musicians in person and light refreshments including fine wine.

For further information and to arrange interviews please contact:

Fleur Allen
Interactive Arts
(08) 9380 6539 or 0412 473 248
fleur@interactivearts.com.au

